ON PUBLIC QUESTIONS

President Roosevelt Talks at Provincetown, Mass.

FEATURE OF HIS ADDRESS

Advocacy of a National Incorporation
Law and His Stand in Relation to Violators of the Law—Answers
Charges of Influencing the Markets.

Provincetown, Mass., Aug. 21.—The laying of the cornerstone of the Cape Cod Pilgrim memorial monument here gave President Roosevelt his first opportunity of the summer to break silence upon public questions and the forty-minute speech that he delivered from a platform on top of Town Hill was one of vigor.

The feature of his address was his advocacy of a national incorporation law and his stand in relation to violators of the law, especially corporations. He declared that the administration would not waver in its determination "to punish certain malefactors of great wealth."

Continuing, he said:

"There will be no change in the policy we have steadily pursued, no let up in the effort to secure the honest observance of the law, for I regard this contest as one to determine who shall rule this government—the people through their governmental agents, or a few of the less and determined men whose wealth makes them particularly formidable because they hide behind the breastworks of corporate organization."

The president said that the government would undertake no action of a vindictive nature and no action that would inflict great or unmerited suffering upon innocent stockholders and upon the public.

He spoke of the charges that the recent depression in markets was due to the administration's attitude toward corporations and declared that the only way in which that attitude could be influencing the markets is in the conduct of a plot on the part of the interests which are being attacked to cause such depression in the country at large as to bring discredit on the conduct of the government in the minds of the people at large.

He said that the government's policy in its ultimate analysis meant "healthy and prosperous expansion of the business activities of honest business men and honest corporations."

About "Undesirable Citizens."

At one point President Roosevelt departed for a moment from his address as originally prepared to remark:

"All that I have said as to desirable and undesirable citizens remains true."

The day was noteworthy in the history of Cape Cod. The monument, which will rise to a height of 250 feet, will commemorate the first landing of the pilgrims on American soil, their six-weeks' exploration of Cape Cod bay in search of an abiding place and the signing of the famous compact on board the Mayflower as she lay at anchor in this harbor.

Ten thousand people were crowded into the little town Tuesday and had every opportunity to see the president. At least one-third of them heard his remarks.

At the conclusion of the first part of the exercises on the hill, which included besides President Roosevelt's speech, addresses by James Bryce, the British ambassador; United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge and Congressman William C. Lovering, the Masonic ritual in connection with the laying of the cornerstone of the monument was carried out. J. Albert Blake of Boston, grand master of Massachusetts, performed the ceremony and William B. Lawrence of Medford, past grand warden, made a brief address on behalf of the grand commandery.

Following these exercises, a banquet was held in the town hall, and later the president was conducted to Odd Fellows' hall, where he was introduced to more than 200 Provincetown and Gloucester fishermen. The president spoke to them, commanding them for their labors and the way in which they performed them.

At the conclusion of his remarks, President Roosevelt was driven to the wharf, where he boarded the Mayflower, which sailed at 4 o'clock for Oyster Bay.

He was saluted by the eight warships of the North Atlantic squadron under command of Rear Admiral Davis, which lay at anchor just outside the harbor. The Mayflower was accompanied by two torpedo boats.

It is expected that the monument will be completed in about two years.

First Hanging of the Kind.

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 21.—James Rucker, a negro, was hanged here for an assault on his stepdaughter. It is said that this is the first time in the history of this state that a negro has been hanged for such crime against one of his own race.

DESires REINFORCMENTS

General Drude Telegraphs to French Minister of War.

Paris, Aug. 21.—The Figaro declares that General Drude has telegraphed the minister of war for reinforcements.

The same paper publishes a dispatch from its correspondent at Casa Blanca confirming the report that Mulai Haig, brother of the sultan of Morocco, was proclaimed sultan on Aug. 16 in the mosque at Morocco city. This indicates a revolt against the indecision of the sultan, the correspondent continues, and a revival of fanaticism is bound to follow. Mulai Haig will raise the green banner of the prophet and be followed by half the empire.

The situation of the French and Spanish forces on shore here, the correspondent concludes, is serious and unless reinforcements are sent they will be obliged to re-embark.

Telegraphing from Casa Blanca, a correspondent of the Matin says that the tribesmen have succeeded in making important breaches in the walls around the city through which they seek to gain admittance during the night. A third Arab column has arrived from Rabat and is camped outside Casa Blanca. The correspondent interviewed General Drude, who said:

"We have an insufficient force. If the Spanish continue to refuse to occupy the position I assigned to them, I will have to ask by telegraph for fresh troops. To be prepared for eventualities I want three more battalions."

DELIVER ANOTHER ATTACK

Arabs Routed With Heavy Losses at Casa Blanca.

Casa Blanca, Morocco, Aug. 21.—The Arabs have delivered another attack upon the French force under General Drude, encamped outside this town, but they were routed with very heavy losses.

A general uprising of the natives is expected.

The European residents of the coast towns, as well as those who live at Fez, Morocco city and other places in the interior, are leaving their homes and seeking safety in flight.

TOURS EXPOSITION GROUNDS

Prince Wilhelm of Sweden Puts in a Strenuous Day.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 21.—After a tour of the exposition grounds, a reception on board of his warship Fylgia and a magnificent banquet at Old Point Comfort, at which he was the guest of Governor Claude E. Swanson of Virginia, Prince Wilhelm of Sweden completed a second strenuous day at Jamestown.

"I am delighted with America and the Jamestown exposition and nothing would please me better than to prolong my visit here," he said. "This is a wonderful country and I would like to see more of it. The exposition is far beyond my expectations. It is unfortunate that my time is limited.

"I have seen your army and navy. I was particularly impressed by the troops in review Monday and with the army and navy exhibits. I am glad that I am to see more of the navy before my return. I like the country and the people. They are kind, considerate and warm hearted."

A feature of the day was an ovation given Prince Wilhelm by his countrymen, a number of whom are employed on the grounds.

ANARCHISTS AND TROOPS.

Engage in Fatal Encounter in a Russian City.

Odessa, Aug. 21.—An encounter has taken place at Kryvosegra between a detachment of troops and a band of five anarchists. The anarchists barricaded themselves in a house. They opened fire from the windows and held the troops at bay for eighteen hours. The chief of the local police and several Cossacks were killed. Two of the anarchists lost their lives, but the other three managed to escape.

General Gregorieff, who has been prefect of Odessa for nearly two years, has been dismissed and as a result there is great anxiety among the Jews of this city. General Gregorieff averted a serious anti-Jewish attack last February by reporting personally to the emperor the impending trouble.

KNOCKS OUT BENNY YANGER

Packey McFarland Wins Fight at Fort Wayne, Ind.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Aug. 21.—Packey McFarland of Chicago knocked out Benny Yanger, also of that city, in the fourth round here Tuesday night. In the third and fourth rounds McFarland went after Yanger in vicious fashion, using effective uppercuts with the right and left. Yanger went to the floor four times in the third round and went down for the final count after two minutes' fighting in the fourth round. The bout was pulled off at the ball park.

Incendiary Fire.

Rockport, Me., Aug. 21.—Fire supposed to have been of incendiary origin, which, within an hour had done damage estimated at $75,000, occurred at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday morning.

MAIL SACKS MISSING

Large Amount of Money Said to Have Been Stolen.

BOTH CLERKS WERE ASLEEP

Three Bags of Registered Matter Containing a Sum Estimated at a Quarter of a Million Dollars Taken From a Burlington Train.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 21.—Three mail sacks said to contain about $250,000 disappeared from a Burlington train Sunday night between Denver and Oxford, Neb. The postoffice officials have just made the theft public. The train left Denver with seven sacks and but four remained when it reached Oxford. Detectives and postoffice officials are at work on the case.

Superintendent J. M. Butler of the Sixth division of railway mail clerks believes the robbery took place just west of the Nebraska line. Both mail clerks were asleep while the train was passing a long stretch of track with few stations. Butler believes some one slipped into the mail car and threw the sacks out of the window. He has ascertained that the valuables were all in two of the sacks, one being empty.

Seven sacks of registered mail were placed on the Kansas City train leaving Denver over the Burlington Sunday night. These sacks were destined for Chicago and were supposed to be placed on the Chicago train at Oxford, Neb. Three of the registered sacks were missing when Oxford was reached.

Postoffice officials have all been warned to be cautious about giving out information on the robbery.

According to reports made to railway postal officials in Lincoln, the amount of money stolen from the postal car on the Burlington was not $250,000, as at first rumored, or anything like that sum, but the authorities refuse to say just what the amount is.

That some money is missing, and that it disappeared near Oxford, Neb., is not denied. The packages were sent from Denver for Chicago and their disappearance was first noticed when the checking up of registered matter began just after the train left Oxford. It is denied that there was any transfer of mails from one car to another at Oxford.

Burlington Officials Hopeful.

Denver, Aug. 21.—The Burlington officials in this city say they have no knowledge of the disappearance of the registered mail sacks on that road between Denver and Oxford, Neb. They said all the information they would have would come through the post-office department. The Denver post-office officials say they believe mail bags containing money were missing and that they will be found later. So far no trace of them has been found and the robbery theory gains credence.

Ten Men Killed.

Lille, France, Aug. 21.—A mill which was in course of construction collapsed here Tuesday. Ten men were killed.

GOVERNOR MAGOON'S REPORT

Startles the Medical Officers at Washington.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The war department has made public a long cabled report from Governor Magoon of Cuba, which startled the medical officers, showing as it does that in the short period since the withdrawal of the American government of intervention and the re-assumption of American government by the Cuban army of pacification, there has been a woeful neglect of sanitary precautions and an almost complete disregard of the treaty obligations under which the Palma government was to keep the island healthy so that it should not be a source of infection to the United States and other countries.

The governor's report also discloses that the fever in this last outbreak has not been confined to the hospital corps, but has extended to other soldiers. He also indicates that the evil sanitary conditions cannot be cured this year, in spite of the most vigorous efforts by American authorities, in which it appears they received little support from native Cuban physicians.

GREAT COUNTRY WHEN DEVELOPED

Rainy River Country and International Falls as Seen on a Brief Visit

COUNTRY OF VAST RESOURCES

Water Power Unrivalled and Unlimited Timber Tributary to Three Towns

So many parties have asked the writer in the few days since his return from the International Falls country as to his impressions thereof that it seems probable that a few observations regarding the country might be interesting.

International Falls is a new town, though it was platted several years ago. It is only since the Canadian Northern reached Fort Frances, just across the Rainy river, four years ago, that it has made any progress. The size of the town varies, according to who tells you the population. If you hear it on this side of the river it is 1,500. If you hear it at Fort Frances, or at Big Falls, it is about half that. The town lays well up above the river, and though somewhat muddy surface, as is almost always the case of newly cleared and undrained places, it is susceptible of good drainage.

The town has two banks and three newspapers and is supplied with about a corresponding number of other business houses. The high price at which the town site company has held lots has checked the usual tendency to overdo new town and all business men report good business. The Minnesota & International railroad has its tracks within about six miles of the town and will be in there probably before the first of September. The site of the depot was being cleared last week. Yards and terminal buildings will also be put in at once.

There have been some temporary hitches between the contractors and the owners of the big water power and the work on the dam has been temporarily discontinued, but it is said by those in a position to know that it will be resumed within a fortnight. This water power is one of the greatest in the western continent, and will develop, it is said 50,000 horse power. It has an inexhaustible reservoir, the Rainy lake, which is said to have more than enough shore line to equal the circumference of the world, and contains 11,000 islands. With this developed and utilized with manufacturers there should be a large city grow up in a very few years comparatively speaking. It is said that there will be several large mills and factories, including an immense paper mill and two pulp mills put in as soon as the dam is completed.

Fort Frances, Ont., is just across the river and is at present the largest town of the two, in point of residences, though having no more business, apparently. It is an old place, having been settled by the Hudson Bay company, which established a post there in the sixties of last century and whose old buildings are some of them still standing. It is a town of probably 1,500 to 2,000 and has many handsome residences. The citizens of that town assert that it will be the coming metropolis, but the Yankees of International Falls will not concede that for a minute.

The town of Ranier, where the Duth & Rainy River railroad crosses the river, is two and one half miles above International Falls. It is beautifully located on a point between the Rainy river and Rainy lake and is certainly destined to become one of the leading summer resorts of the United States. It is the gateway of the Rainy lake country. We say they, because, but for the boundary the three towns must eventually become one city. In fact there is quite a settlement at Jameson's addition to International Falls, which is just about half way between that town and Ranier.

As to the country surrounding the towns, the only view of it was obtained from the decks of the steamer Itasca, which plied between that town and Little Fork. The distance by the railroad will be thirteen miles, yet by the river, down the Little Fork and up the Rainy rivers it is 33 miles. Along the streams it is thickly timbered with medium sized, birch, poplar, elm and sometimes tamarack and fir. The banks along the river are from ten to twenty feet in height and there is little indication at the river of the swampy conditions said to exist in the interior. This part of the country is said to be very swampy, and it certainly is between Littlefork and Big Falls. It is all, however, susceptible of drainage and State Drainage Engineer Ralph has now a crew of men at work between Littlefork and International Falls. When the work planned is completed there will be a large area of excellent lands opened for tillage.

As to the future of that country there can be no doubt. There is bound to be almost undreamed of development and there is money to be made there, especially by the men who are on the ground floor.

Just the present time would not be a favorable one for laboring men to go to International Falls because the two railroads just being completed will naturally throw considerable common labor onto the market there. When work is resumed on the dam there will be a big demand for men however.

As to business men locating there, there is little advice to be given. In some lines International Falls is filled, in others there are good openings. The man who goes there and establishes a needed business or buys one out is bound to have a good thing, because business is done on an almost entirely cash basis and on a good margin. Any one contemplating a change of location will do well to visit that country before locating. There are going to be several good small towns on both the railroads and the man who is on the ground first in each town with a general store will make a killing as there will be no expense to speak of and prices are high and money much more plentiful than in most new countries.

The Rainy river country is certainly beautiful. The writer was marooned at Littlefork for twenty hours by missing a connection and so missed the boat for a trip up Rainy lake, but friends who took the trip were enthusiastic as to the beauty of the country. About two miles before reaching the falls on the ascent of the Rainy river the rock begins to crop out and from thence up river the scenery which has been peacefully beautiful from the time of leaving Littlefork, becomes picturesque and as the river and lake are ascended becomes grand. A member of the party who is familiar with the Adirondacks and St. Lawrence scenery, and who is familiar with the beautiful and historic spots of England and Wales, stated that he had never seen the region that excelled this in beauty and grandeur.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"Thorns and Orange Blossoms"

Unusual interest is being manifested in the engagement of "Thorns and Orange Blossoms" company, which will play at the Brainerd opera house tonight. The entire production and company is the same that made such a remarkable impression on Chicago audiences at the Academy of Music in Chicago. The scenery is all newly painted and forms an endless variety of picturesque places taken from original paintings. The scenic equipment of "Thorns and Orange Blossoms" was a notable feature last season and has been much improved on.

An entire new set of mechanical devices used to produce a continuous snow storm of thirty minutes duration have been made a part of the production along with many costly electrical devices. The realistic features of the attraction are said to be marvels of stage craftsmanship.

The play tells a story of interest to all classes. While in no wise being a problem play or an advocate of socialism, still the theme treats of a young girl's contempt for the English aristocracy. Both sides are given a fair hearing and the auditor is left to draw his own conclusions. Love, honor, villainy, jealousy, pathos and comedy are ingeniously commingled with the result that "Thorns and Orange Blossoms," while not only being the best of Bertha M. Clay's works, approaches the finest masterpieces ever penned on the subject of emotional events.

Men Past Sixty in Danger

More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate glands. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rockport, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Kidney cure I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now 91 years old."

Looking For His Boy

A Crookston telegram says Thomas Bisjar of Brainerd spent Sunday there trying to get trace of his son, Jay, 17 years of age, who ran away from home a week ago and has not been heard from since. He was employed in the Northern Pacific shops here as an apprentice and had but two years to serve when he would have passed as a master mechanic and receive $4 per day. His father has just returned from Larimore, Devils Lake and other points west, but found no trace of the boy. He drove from this city to the Casey farm, twelve miles from the city, where the boy was acquainted but found no trace of him there. He has enlisted Chief of Police Eck and will leave no stone unturned to have the boy returned to Brainerd at once.

VEGETABLES WILL BE HIGH

Storm Damaged Market Gardens in This Vicinity Badly Sunday and May Create Big Shortage

The indications are that tomatoes, cabbages, beans and other similar vegetables will be scarce this fall. The storm Sunday riddled some of the largest market gardens in this vicinity. Frank Miller, who is on Judd Wright's place northwest of the city, states that he will not get over a couple of bushels of tomatoes off a patch from which he expected 300 bushels and that out of 3,000 winter cabbages it is doubtful if he markets a dozen heads. Other gardens are hit just as bad. Root crops are not hurt quite as bad but late potatoes in the track of the storm are thought to be badly cut down that they will not mature.

The high school book room will open Tuesday, August 27th for the sale of text books. Children should come early in order to avoid the usual rush on the first day of school. 66t4w

TWO GREAT HORSES

Dan Patch and Sweet Marie to Attempt to Lower Their Records at the Minnesota State Fair

On Monday, Sept. 2, at the Minnesota State Fair Dan Patch will give one of his wonderful exhibitions of pacing speed. It is a pleasure to see this grand horse move; his is the poetry of horse motion; he does his work so honestly that it commands respect, so easily that it excites admiration, and with manner so cool and deliberate that he seems endowed with an intellect that some men would be justified in envying. On Thursday, Sept. 5, Sweet Marie, the world's fastest racing trotter, will make the effort to break her own record, the only horse now living that can do it. These are special features to be seen only on the days named, but each is worth going a long way to see. The Fair continues through the week closing on Saturday, Sept. 7, with a great automobile race meet.

FOR ELKS CELEBRATION

Preparations are Being Made for a Big Celebration of the Anniversary of Brainerd Lodge

The committee having charge of the arrangements for the celebration of the anniversary of the organization of the Elk's Lodge in this city, which will take place Friday afternoon and evening of this week, are making elaborate plans for merry making. The lodge will keep open house all that day and evening. The big event of the afternoon will be the ball game between a team of Black Hawks and Bohemians and one of the Elks. This will be fought to a finish and a great deal of good sport is expected.

In the evening there will be cards and dancing. The invitations announce that the frappe will be concocted by "Bill Cleary" which certainly ought to guarantee an appetizing beverage. It is expected that a good sized herd of Elks from other stamping grounds will brouse in the Brainerd corral all night.

Ten Years in Bed.

"For ten years I was confined to my bed with disease of my kidneys," writes R. A. Gray, J. P. of Oakville, Ind. "It was so severe that I could not move part of the time. I consulted the very best medical skill available, but could get no relief until Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me. It has been a Godsend to me." H. P. Dunn & Co. mwf-d-w

TWO WEDDINGS

Floyd Atwater and Mae Andrews, of Emily, and Chas. Breauseau and Mae Henkel, of Brainerd

One very pleasant wedding occurred in this city last evening and a second this morning. The first was that of Floyd Atwater and Mae Andrews, of Emily, which took place at the Windsor hotel last evening. Rev. H. A. Seder officiating: The bride is a daughter of Ernest Andrews and a niece of County Commissioner Andrews. They will make their home in their new house at Emily, where the groom is a valued employee of Andrews & Co.

Charles Breauseau and Miss Mae Henkel, both of this city, were married at St. Francis church this morning, and left today noon for Minneapolis on a wedding trip. They will make their home in Brainerd, the groom being employed in the Northern Pacific shops here.

Eagle Lake Ranch Burned

Frank Andrews and Floy Atwater, two Emily gentlemen, bring the information that the Eagle lake stopping place, owned by Freeman Doan, burned to the ground yesterday. Most of the household goods were removed but it was impossible to put the fire out, it having gained such headway before it was discovered. The place was an old land mark on the Leech lake road where for years it has been the headquarters of lumbermen in their pilgrimages to and from the pines. Mr. Doan was not at home when the fire occurred but was met on the road by the gentlemen who brought the news to Brainerd and informed of his loss. It is not known how the fire originated or whether it was insured.

WOMEN'S WOES

Brainerd Women are Finding Relief at Last

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with aching pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. L. Peterson, wife of L. Peterson, janitor of the Columbian block, Brainerd, Minn., says: "I have given Doan's Kidney Pills a thorough trial and believe that this remedy is the most reliable preparation that exists for kidney trouble. I used to suffer from constant dull aching in the small of my back and loins and other symptoms which plainly indicated a disordered condition of the kidneys. I decided to try Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store. After using a few doses I felt better and in a few days the pain and other symptoms of kidney trouble disappeared. I believe that Doan's Kidney Pills have given me a new lease of life, and am so confident that this remedy will do the same in all cases of kidney trouble that I am advising every sufferer I meet to use it."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doans—and take no other.

KILLING WAS ACCIDENTAL.

Coroner's Jury Clears Marshal of Freeport, Minn.

Freeport, Minn., Aug. 21.—In the case of the killing of John Toneyon by Marshal William T Radford, the jury rendered a verdict that Toneyon came to his death from a bullet fired from a revolver in the hand of Radford, fired with intent to stop the disturbance and that the killing was accidental.

The inquest was held in the village hall and was presided over by Deputy Coroner Dr. Kuhlman of Melrose county. Attorney Himesl represented the state. The verdict is very satisfactory to the people of the village.

The funeral of the deceased took place Tuesday morning at the Catholic church.

The other four who were with Toneyon at the time he was killed were arrested and tried under the charge of disturbing the peace. They all pleaded guilty and were fined $25 and costs each by Justice Senn of New Munich.

What a New Jersey Editor says

AN IMPORTANT LETTER

Hugo, Minn., Aug. 12, 07.
Thos. Fitzgibbons,
St. Paul Minn.

MY DEAR SIR: I wish to say something for Irish Liniment in order that those suffering from Eczema may benefit by my experience. I suffered with it on the face for four years, the longest four years of my life, during that time I tried many different remedies without favorable results.

A few applications of your Irish Liniment proved different and I say two bottles of it has completely cured me of the worst eczema case that could exist and I am right here (with the same face) to prove my statements.

The results were so grateful to me that I recommended your liniment to a friend for Big Neck (which was a bad one) and I conscientiously say it has been entirely cured by the use of only one bottle of your Irish Liniment.

Wishing you success and with kindest regards, I am,

Yours very truly,

(Signed) J. N. PELTIER.
